

Jean Slaybaugh

Chief Operating Officer

Jean Slaybaugh was appointed Chief Operating Officer of the Department of Human Services in October 2020. Previously, she held the role of DHS Chief Financial Officer since October 2010. She is a finance and operations management professional with over twenty-five years of broad industry experience. Her background also includes extensive experience in strategic planning and business development. She has held key positions with large publicly traded federal contractors, has worked in the hospital and home health provider sectors, and has extensive experience in the health care management field.

In her current role, Jean leads the fiscal management division and is responsible for planning, monitoring and accounting for an annual budget of more than $7 billion. She also oversees the division of information technology, corporate human resources, and the bureau of policy coordination.

Ms. Slaybaugh holds a Bachelors in Business Administration from Iowa State University and a Masters in Business Administration in Finance and Accounting from Regis University.